Irate Kozinski Seeks Review of Fraud Case

SAN FRANCISCO - A securities-fraud ruling by a 9th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals panel turned into a judicial brawl Tuesday as Chief Judge Alex Kozinski and fellow conservatives blasted the court's refusal to reconsider the case.

Getting Paid to Schmooze: Law's Next Big Thing

Wanted: associate attorney - client development. Big on schmoozing. Welcome to a brand new marketing concept: the sales attorney - a position whose time has come, according to Pamela J. Scholefield, founder of Scholefield Associates, a San Diego-based construction-law and litigation firm.

Judicial Profile - Quick-Change Artist

Torrance Judge Mark S. Arnold attributes his smooth adaptation to his job to the wildly different earlier chapters of his life.
